Recently, the Iowa Board of Medicine took the following action:

Thomas W. Fagg, D.O., a 56-year-old Iowa-licensed physician who currently practices emergency medicine in Jefferson, Iowa, completed the terms of his probation on January 13, 2015. On April 8, 2011, the Board filed disciplinary charges against Dr. Fagg alleging that he failed provide appropriate treatment to a teenage patient who presented to the emergency department at Greene County Medical Center in Jefferson, Iowa, in 2006, and failed to respond to emergency department pages in a timely manner when he was on call on numerous occasions and failed to dictate hospital notes in a timely manner. On January 13, 2012, Dr. Fagg entered into a Settlement Agreement with the Board to resolve the pending disciplinary charges. The Board issued Dr. Fagg a Citation and Warning and ordered him to pay a $2,500 civil penalty. The Board also placed Dr. Fagg on probation for a period of three (3) years subject to successful completion of a supervised education program and Board monitoring. Dr. Fagg successfully completed the terms of his probation on January 13, 2015, and his Iowa medical license was returned to its full privileges, free and clear, of all restrictions.

When appropriate, disciplinary actions are reported to the National Practitioner Data Bank, an electronic repository administered by the U.S. Health Resources and Services Administration to track adverse license actions.
